This county board will assemble tomorrow in the county treasurer's office for the transaction of business. It is likely that at the present meeting the board will take some important action in the matter of transferring the fair grounds to a responsible stock company. Something ought to be done to give us good fairs in the future.

pleasantly celebrated last evening at the family residence on North Main street, there being present Mrs. B. L. Perry, Mrs. J. D. Shaffer, of Springfield, Mrs. J.
T. Denton, Mrs. A. Shoemaker, Mrs.
Harry Gillis, Mrs. Sena, Mrs. B. B. Rose, Mrs. Demarest and Mrs. Hart. There was a large supper, and Mrs. Antrim received a number of useful gifts.

Daily Times. It will be the best daily paper Lincoln has ever had, and has come to stay." Success to it.

Peter Stiles got floured at the Union Depot last evening by a Wabash baggageman named Walls, who got in a

The Jenny Electric Light.

The Secretary of State has issued a license for the incorporation of the "Decatur Jenny Electric Light and Power Company," of Decatur, Ill., with a capital stock of $25,000. The incorporators are Messrs. E. B. Roby, Charles F. Thacker, D. W. Beensman and Josiah M. Ciokey.
The organization has not yet been perfected, as the officers are yet to be elected.
The names of all the stockholders will be made known in due time. The plant is working splendidly, and it is probable that the city will use and pay for eight or more lamps to light the business streets.

Death of Mrs. M. J. Rice.
Died—At the home of her sister, Mrs.
Maria Kitzman, in Winchester, Scott co., Ill., March 3, 1881, Mrs. Mary J. Rice, in the 61st year of her age.

Mrs. Rice was the youngest sister of Mrs. E. E. Pugh and J. B. Corin, of this city. She was born in Dodd county, Ky., July 15th, 1823; removed with her parents to Vandalia, Ill., in 1828, and there was married to Dr. E. J. Rice in 1829, who died in Macon, Feb. 20, 1875. The remains will be taken to Macon, where the funeral will occur to-morrow forenoon, and her body will be deposited by the side of her deceased husband.

J. B. Gorin and other relatives of the deceased will accompany the body to Macon, on the Central train this evening at 5:25 o'clock.

The funeral services will take place at 11 o'clock to-morrow, and Decatur friends wishing to attend can do so by taking the 10 a. m. train here to-morrow and returning at 3:30 p. m.

A Broken Arm.

Nottie Beard, one of Billy Beard's infamous children, accidentally broke her right arm above the elbow while playing with her brother at the family residence, No. 125 North Franklin street, yesterday afternoon. The arm was broken by a fall. The fracture was reduced by the Dr. Chas. Howell, and to-day Nottie is doing as well as could be expected.

More Claimants.

The following persons have called at J.
R. Rice & Co.'s store since yesterday noon and presented claims for prizes won at the Saturday drawing: Lloyd Knight, a farmer living 6 miles east of Macon, held No. 1715, and won the $12 velvet upholstered rocker.
Mrs. Caroline Osborne, of Decatur, held No. 7075, and took the decorated chamber set.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Shirley Foster is at Union to-day.

Attorney Okeley visited Springfield today.

E. B. Woodruff, of St. Louis, was in Decatur yesterday selling printers' supplies.

Pam Russell, the detective, hopes to be able to run down the fellows who robbed the Daikard on a Wabash train in Decatur not long since.

Miss Hoke and Miss Goodrich, who have been guests of Mrs. W. C. Johns, left for their homes in the east to-day noon.

Dr. Sylvester C. Ham, of Argenta, visited last evening in the evening yesterday. He has quite a large and paying practice in the northwest part of the county.

City Attorney Mills will go to Tele-burg and be present during the trial of Gardner. He is engaged as one of the counsel for the defense.

M. Y. Givler will not remove to the country until the weather moderates. Mr.
Norman, who has bought the Oliver city property, is in no special hurry to gain possession of the premises.

Detective J. F. Farrell, arrived in the city yesterday from Assumption. He is working on a murder case and thinks he is on the trail of the butchers. The crime was committed in Missouri in 1873.

Emmanuel Clement one of the late defendants in the Jenny Electric Light case is in the city. He is reported by one who professes to know what he is talking about that Clement is making apparent efforts to discover the parties who sought the removal of the monument erected in memory of Gen. Lee, and stand within a few feet of Jeff Davis while the spunk was in progress. Mrs. Bird will return home the latter part of the present month.

Republic in County Committee.

The members of the Republican County Central Committee are requested to meet at the sheriff's office in Decatur, on Saturday, March 5, at one o'clock sharp. Business of importance will be transacted and it is important that every member should be present.

M. P. Kavan, Chairman.

JOHN A. BARNES, Sec'y, and David

A. F. SMITH and John Lindsay are busy to-day moving the State Sanitary office outfit from its old quarters on Prairie street to a larger room in the basement beneath Ranch, McPherson & Co.'s dry goods store, south side city park. Mr.
Smith says he will place his office on the floor of his apartment.

A Complete Surprise.

At his commodious home on South Main street, last evening, Mr. Martin P.
Murphy, who has resided in this community for a period of 28 years, was made the victim of a well-planned surprise visitation in honor of his 32d birthday anniversary. Not expecting any callers, he had gone out of the house for a few minutes, and when he returned he found the rooms brightly illuminated and filled with old friends and neighbors, among whom were Judge S. S. Oren, County Clerk Hardy and wife, Sheriff Foster and wife, Deputy Sheriff J. B. Maury and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leforge, Mr. and Mrs. M. Troutman, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Whitely, Mr. and Mrs. William Schroth, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Ehrman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leforge, Mr. and Mrs. I. O.
Eymann, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitmer, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Randall, Rev. Pinkerton and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Ulrich and Lena, Mrs. E. A. Stroth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patterson, Henry Schroeder, Misses Elizabeth and Lida Dyke, and others. To make the surprise more complete, on behalf of the donors Rev. Pinkerton, in an appropriate speech, presented Mr. Murphy with a magnificent gold-headed ebony cane to support him in his declining years. The gift was received with a heart full of thanks, after which the company engaged in social conversation. Soon afterward a splendid supper was served, to which all did justice.

Miss Lena HENKEL will organize a class for beginners in the study of dancing, Monday, March 3d, Rooms 25 and 26, Hawthorn block, elevator entrance on

THE CITY LEGISLATURE.

Action of the City Council at the Meeting Last Night—The Proceedings.

The regular March meeting of the city council was held last night, Mayor Chambers and all the aldermen present, except Ald. Schroll.

The minutes of the February meeting were read and approved.

PATRIOTISM AND COMMUNICATIONS.

A communication from J. S. Post about the proposed new bridge with letter by John Gross was referred to the finance committee for investigation.

A communication from J. L. Gogarty asking that his license be transferred to the steamer in the saloon business in the fifth ward, Thomas McGowan, counsel some discussion. Ald. Lake objected on the ground that the Supreme Court had decided that the council had no power to make the transfer. City attorney decided that the council could not make the transfer asked. No action taken.

Chapman Jacobs asked the council to grant him a pawnbroker's license for a term of 10 months. No action taken.

A REMONSTRANCE.
